“ To the family and friends, I know its been over a year since you loss your loved one in death. Im sure the pain still exists but the Bible fortells of a time when "all those in memorial tombs will come out" John 5:28, 29. Please draw comfort from the scriptures and trust in God for help thru your loss##imported-begin##D. Samuel##imported-end##

“ Hi ! Hall's ! I would like to send my condolences. Lossing a dear loved one breaks the circle of life.It helps to know that others think about you at such a hurting time in life. We can be sure that in the future Death will be done away with forever, Rev.21:3-5, Why, because our creator is making all things NEW. I hope these few thoughts will be helping and postive.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences. it's so hard to deal with the loss of a loved one. It is something no family should have to go through. Was this God's purpose for us? Never may that be the case. 1st John 4:8 says that God is love. Our loving father desires only happiness for us, therefore he has promised to raise the dead back to life, and reunite them with their family members in paradise conditions. That has always been God's purpose from the very beginning. That is why Rev 21:3-5 says, "Look! "The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. "Then the one seated on the throne says "Look! I am making all things new. "Also he says, "Write! because these words are faithful and true." Please let God's word be a strengthening aid to you, and may your precious memories of Gertrude help to put a smile on your face, and a hope in your heart of a better day.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Ms. Gertrude. It's just so hard to believe that you are no longer here. Everyday I just look at the house next door and I remember how it used to be when you and my mother would be sitting on the porch laughing and talking. She misses you so much and so do I. You and your family had become a part of our family, you were always more than just a neighbor. I remember when our family went through our losses and how you were there so support us. You was the first one there when my water broke right before I had Aaliyah (remember that)? You was always there for us and I want you to know that we love you very much and we will always be there for your family. RIP until we meet again.##imported-begin##Stacey Hicks##imported-end##

“ I send my condolences to the family. During the time of a loss of a family member, it is comforting to know that Jehovah God is the "Father of tender mercies" and "comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Cor. 1:3,4). It is also comforting to know that "there is going to be a resurrection" (Acts 24:15). Thus, relying on the scriptures and the promises held within can prove to be a source of comfort. I hope they prove to be a source of comfort for you.##imported-begin##Kendra##imported-end##
