

Gertrude L. Scott

March 3, 1917 - September 18, 2005

GERTRUDE LUCRETIA SCOTT, daughter of the late Harry Jones and Henrietta Jones, was born on March 3, 1917 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 18, 2005 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She started working for the Hot Shoppe in 1950 and received numerous awards and commendations as head chef before retiring in 1986. Gertrude studied with Jehovah's Witnesses. She educated and taught her late son Nathaniel how to talk, walk and write his name against all odds. Gertrude married the late Albert N. Scott and was the mother of Doris McCray, Regina Lindsay and Elaine McColley and the late Nathaniel L. Scott and Theodore Scott. Gertrude (b.k.a. Mother, Mama and Gramma) was a loving, giving, compassionate person who spoke her mind. She loved her family most of all. She leaves her love: daughters, Doris, Regina and Elaine; sons-in-law, Samuel Lindsay and Eldery McColley; sister, Hortense Blackwell; sisters-in-law, Ella Mae Coates and Shirley Stewart; twenty-five grandchildren, seventy-six great-grandchildren and twenty-six great-great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and numerous friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“Dear Family, Though we’ve never met, I would like to express my sincere condolences for your great loss. If I may offer a comforting scripture from God’s Word the Bible, it would be John 5:28,29 which promises: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life.” May your family find comfort in God’s Word during this most difficult time.##imported-begin##Kelly Gathers##imported-end##
