

Gertrude Helene Molock

May 29, 1938 - January 19, 2021

GERTRUDE HELENE REID, daughter of Margaret Reid and Charles Walters, was born on May 29, 1938. She departed this life on January 19, 2021.

Gertrude was educated in Baltimore Public Schools and graduated from Douglass Senior High School in 1957.

Gertrude had one daughter Giovanna H. Day in 1956, and one son Keith Brian Reid in 1959. Gertrude married Edwin Molock in 1972.

Through steadfast determination and ambition she obtained her Bachelor of Science in Social Science from Coppin State College in 1987. Taking courses at night while working full time, she used to always say, "If I have to walk across that stage to get my diploma with a cane, I am determined to get it." In addition to being a strong advocate of obtaining an education, she spoke of the attribute of portraying a good personality. She stated how a good personality will take you a long way in life. For those that have known her, most would agree that she possessed these attributes. She often spoke of how having a good credit rating shows your integrity. Gertrude's work history and experience was vast and diversified. To list a few of the positions she held, maid, dietary aide, waitress, salad girl, factory worker, librarian assistant, clerk typist, receptionist, case worker associate and last but not least, juvenile service counselor. One of her favorite tidbits of knowledge to her children was, to even sweep the streets you need to have a diploma and your education. She indeed practiced what she preached. Every Sunday she scanned the employment section of the newspaper, although she was working a job with the State of Maryland and had been employed for twenty-nine years. Although biologically she only had two children, she impacted the lives of many more as a juvenile service counselor, a position she enjoyed and excelled in.

Gertrude leaves to cherish her memory; daughter, Giovanna H. Elliott (Clinton); brothers-in-law, Sylvester Molock and Olin Molock; sister-in-law, Lucy Molock; daughter-in-law, Felecia Reid; grandson, Maurice Edwin Joseph Guerra Reid; granddaughter, Marquia Nicole Reid; six grandchildren, Makai, Tyreek, Diamond, Malin, Murjani and Serenity
