

Gertrude Platt

August 4, 1912 - December 30, 2001

Gertrude Elizabeth Platt, daughter of Elizabeth Platt (her namesake) was born on July 4, 1912 in Fayetteville, North Carolina. She entered into God's and on December 30, 2001 of natural causes. She received her education in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Gertrude, fondly called "Ms. Trudy" began touring numerous cities in her early twenties singing with some of the world's most famous artists. Gertrude was employed at Sinai Hospital for many years and at the &P Bakery for twelve years. She leaves to cherish her memory: son and daughter-in-law, Ronald G. Platt, SR., and Linda Carol Platt; daughter, Delores Allison; adopted sister, Gwen Hughes; four grandchildren Charles "Chucky" Allison, Janice "Muffy" Platt, Derrick "Pretty Boy" Johnson, and Jamelia "MeMe" Platt; two great grand's, Sharonda and De'Asia (known as her Bae); four nieces, Alice, Roberta (Bobby), Thelma (Wee Wee) and adopted niece, April; and a host of great nieces and nephews. Her brother, the late Robert Platt and grandson, the late Ronald "Jitterbug" Platt, preceded her in death. I walked into your life and you showed me the difference between right and wrong, But, now that you are gone, I must be strong; Somehow, I'll find a way to carry on. The love you left I'll cherish forever, until the day that we are together. Love Always, Derrick Gram, It's Muffy- there is no word that could ever be expressed to explain the love that you've shown and given me. You were always there to correct the wrong. Even though God has called you home, your wisdom, your strength, and your laughter will always live on within me. For now, I'm truly blessed to have my very own Guardian Angel who I will always love and cherish.Love, Muffy
