

Gertrude Stackhouse

June 16, 1918 - February 21, 2010

GERTRUDE STACKHOUSE, daughter of the late Nathaniel McCallum and Ella Jane Stewart, was born on June 16, 1918 in North Carolina. She departed this life on Sunday, February 21, 2010. "Gert," as she was affectionately known, received her education in North Carolina, where she excelled in mathematics. She also worked on the family farm to help support her family. She retired from home daycare services about twenty years ago, a job she loved doing with a passion. She was a long time member of St. Stevens Church where she was on the Mother Board. She sang on the Senior Choir and was one of the founding members of the church. Gert was a loving mother who cared for her children, grandchildren and everyone else that she came in contact with. She was always available to lend a helping hand to anyone that needed it. Preceding her in death are her husband Jesse Stackhouse, daughter Luria Dean Greene and son Eddie Walker. Left to mourn her passing are: her daughter, Carolyn Crowder and Norma Jane Stackhouse; her sons, Nathaniel Walker and Jesse Stackhouse; sister, Luria Dean Johnson; daughter-in-law, Valerie Walker; son-in-law, Lee Warren Greene; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) That day, will be a real celebration of life!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family and friends of Gertrude Stackhouse. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
