“ Mrs. Gertrude Stephens is sorely missed at Levindale Hebrew Geriatric Center and Hospital. On Burk one she was the Mom to some and Grandma to many. Her witty spirit is what we loved most. The night shift is sadden of her absence. It's very hard to walk pass her room and realize she's not there. Life goes on, so she lives in our hearts and minds. Never will she be forgotten. Her nick name on the night-shift was HONEY, and may our sweetheart rest in peace. To the family and friends you have our condolences. Unfortunately your lost is our lost, so may GOD give us all strength to carry on her legacy. A special blessing to you the STEPHENS family.
