“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. 1 Corinthians 15:26 calls death our enemy and informs us that death itself will be done away with. Along with this,there will be a resurrection, a coming back to life for many. Daniel 12:2 says- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." These will wake up to a Paradise. And there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. May these loving promises give you much comfort and strength until that time arrives.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To Family & Friends: I am very sorry for the loss of your loved one. I send my condolences. But the Bible also offers some hope. John 5:28,29 gives us the hope that our dead loved ones will be resurrected back to life. Also, Revelation 21:3,4 describes that in the future, there will be no more sickness or death. May you be comforted by these scriptures and by Jehovah God.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##
