“ Dear family and friends of Gilbert. I am very sorry to hear about your lost of a loved one. Death is never an easy thing to go through. The bible tells of a time when we will see our dead loved ones again. John 5:28,29. I hope you are comforted by this fact.##imported-begin##A.Jones##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sympathy on the death of your loved one. Please find comfort in the scripture found at Acts 24:15 which says that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. One day the dead will rise again to live in peaceful conditions. Jesus said at John 11:25, "I am the resurrection and the life. "Whoever exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." It was never Jehovah's purpose for people to die. He longs for us to live forever, so through the precious blood of his son Jesus, his purpose will be fulfilled. Please take comfort in his promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ After working with Kenny for several years and countless laughs I only really got to know Kenny's heart and love for the LORD when working with him in the same dpmt. As hard as this time truly is and as hard as it is to let go, may you find peace and comfort knowing he is in a much better place. By now his presence has undoubtedly created many smiles and much laughter in heaven. Praise GOD for eternal life!##imported-begin##Craig Rice##imported-end##

“ Gilbert, known to me as "Kenny", worked with me at Johns Hopkins. He was always cheerful and had a great sense of humor. My favorite memory of Kenny is the day we both came to work dressed the same (light blue turtlenecks, jeans and white sneakers)! We laughed every time we saw each other that day and so did our officemates. A coworker took a picture of us, posing together and laughing in our matching outfits. I still have that picture and always makes me laugh. I am grateful for having known Kenny and I will always cherish the memory of laughter shared. I offer you my deepest condolences and will keep you in my thoughts.##imported-begin##Jodi Trautman-Phelps##imported-end##

“ So sorry for the loss of your loved one Kenny. We worked at the same location JHU/APL although we did not work directly together. Everytime I saw Kenny he was always upbeat, respectful and always had a smile on his face. He also had a positive attitude about life. He will be missed. God Bless you all as you go thru.##imported-begin##Brenda Lee##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. When the death of our loved ones occurs we hurt deeply because death is really our enemy. (First Corinthians 15:26) But, there is hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 tells us- "there is going to be a resurrection". When that time comes there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Revelation 21:4) May you receive much comfort and strength from family, friends and these loving promises from the Bible.###imported-begin##S.
