

Gilbert Jackson

August 9, 1960 - August 26, 2010

GILBERT “BUCKY” ALLEN JACKSON was born on August 9, 1960 in Lumberton, North Carolina to Willie Lacy Jackson and the late Carrie Jackson, who preceded him in death on May 26, 2010.

Bucky is the nickname given to him by Aunt Daisy and he has been affectionately called “Bucky” by everyone. The name still remains with him.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Lake Clifton High School in 1979.

After completing high school, Bucky joined the U.S. Marines and he served his country for three years. He was very proud of his uniform and wore it well and with pride.

Bucky was a very friendly person who loved to laugh, tell jokes, and be around everyone and never met a stranger. He was a member of and baptized at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, at an early age.

He was very ambitious and a great entrepreneur. His first business was a clothing store which he named “Nick and Nique” for his twins, a car detail business and a janitorial business, which he employed several family members and friends.

Bucky was employed by Daniels consultants as a bridge inspector for several years before his illness and was a very dedicated employee.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory: his devoted father, Willie L. Jackson; son, Dominick Jackson; daughter, Dominique Jackson; loving and dedicated sister, Katrina Jackson; brother, Willie L. Jackson, Jr; six aunts, Bernice (James) Stanton, Beatrice Watson, a devoted and caring aunt, Daisy (Leroy) McLean, Alice (Charles) Stanton, Lois Lewis and Lizzie (Oscar) Hopkins; three uncles, Franklin (Jannie) Jackson, Horace Hubbard and Larry Jackson; and a host of cousins, other family members and friends.
