“ Grandad, Hi there ol man....Well, we did it, had another Million Dollar cookout last Saturday..I swore to the world I was NOT going to go but after talking to Sha, I truly couldn't stay away...We finally had a cook-out where there was just your kids and Grandkids...Lord knows we love our extended family but we certainly needed some US time:) As usual, we ate, danced, sang, cried and they got wasted.lol...It is sometimes hard thinking of all we have laid to rest this past couple of years...You, Pooch, My Daddy, Grandma and the baby of our family Lishinia... I sat with you until you took your very last breathe. I prayed with and for you and sang a song, at the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light and the burden of my heart flowed away; it was there by faith,, I recieved my sight and noow I am happy all the days(those we our words to that song)..Since then I have found myself at the bedside of Daddy and Grandma..My Lord who would have thought??? Luckily I now understand that to be absent from the flesh is to be present with the Lord so I know you are ALL ok...I love you Grandad & will forever be grateful to be your Granddaughter

“ Dear Family, I am so proud to be a member of the Graves clan. No matter what, we are there for each other, through thick and thin. It is wonderful to know that I can call on any one of you if I have a problem. Thank you all for your love and support when I needed you. To God be the Glory for the things he has done, is doing, and will do for this Family. Love, Bo##imported-begin##Michael Bo-Bo, Graves##imported-end##

“ To My Family, I send my heartfelt sympathy to all of you. I thank The Lord for your unselfish love for family and the support you give one another. The Boyd family truly represents the strength of Family. No matter what comes your way, you are all survivors. Hallelujah!!! It's hard to believe that Uncle Gilbert is not physically here with us but he will always be alive in our hearts. I will forever remember how nice he was to my family. We were all welcomed in his home. Most of all I will remember that he always had a way of giving me some kind of compliment. I love each of you with all my heart.##imported-begin##Niece/Cousin Sharone##imported-end##

“ Hey there Grandad. Just coming by to see that handsome face and tell you I love you and still think of you. Tia and Darian are married now. We missed you at the wedding. Tia had a memorial candle and picture of you at the wedding and reception. Oh how I still remember my wedding. My first dance was with my husband and my second was with my Grandad. Boy did I get some flack for not dancinf to daddy's little girl. I just loved and admired you so much. You showed me what true love was. Genetics did not matter to you!!! You were MY Granddaddy and that was all that mattered. Rest on!! I will love you forever. Your OLDEST Grandchild, Risha##imported-begin##Maurisha White##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Who would have thought we be back in this situation so soon? I am so proud of all of you. We all pulled together and took care of business. Granddad will truly be missed. To his children, I'm sorry for the lost of your father. Grandma, you are the strongest of us all, I'm sorry for your lost. I'll finish tomorrow, because as usual, I'm about to cry. I love you all and God Bless. Granddaddy, tell my brother I said Happy 30th B-Day.##imported-begin##Tia##imported-end##

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 which assures us of the hope that those who have fallen asleep in death will receive a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##

“ Grandad, It is so hard to believe you are gone on. I am honored to have had you for my Grandad. In your own ways, you showed us each so much love. You taught us what it meant to support a family. I love you with all of my heart. I thank God for the many opportunities I had to hug you as I always did when I left your house. You were so important to me. As I little girl I waited on the days you would come home and take me out for "our time". You always made me feel special. Growing into an adult, I reflect on the "unconditional" love you and Grandma shared. No matter what obstacles were in the way you were both committed to eachother and our family. Therefore, I must say, thank you...Thank you for showing us the true meaning of love, committment and family. We are a close family from you and Grandma, to your 7 children, and 14 remaining grandchildren. We pray TOGETHER, love TOGETHER, argue TOGETHER, fight TOGETHER and most of al STICK TOGETHER. Being blessed with this family in which you are the Head is a unique but wonderful experience. Rest on Grandad, I will see you in eternity. “ He's in a better place right now,than he's been before; all pain is now gone;for he's now at rest; for nothing troubles him no more. It we who feel the burden of our sadness and our grief; For we have to cry,to mourn our loss, before we get get relief. knowing you'll reconnect with him,at the end of life road. for once you see his face again, in his resting arms to comfort you once again. “ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in his word the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which talks about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May these provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I offer my heartfelt condolences to the family for the loss of Gilrath. Rejoice in the promise of the resurrection, because Acts 24:15, as well as many other scriptures let us know that the dead will be raised back from the dead to life once again. May you be comforted by that sure promise.##imported-begin##rita johnson##imported-end##
