“ To the family, I did not get to say at the funeral how Ginny and I would be on the phone for hours talking and sometimes she would fall asleep because her medicine would take over. She was kind to everyone and I loved her like a sister. We are sisters in Christ but she was special to me. Our angel has gone home to the Lord now and will truly be missed by all.##imported-begin##Theresa Montague##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Wallace's family and friends. Her untimely death is, no doubt, painful and difficult to bear at times that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to First Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Then, Daniel 12:2 states, "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promise of God, who cannot lie.- Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Death is never easy to cope with especially when it overtakes someone so young. May you find solace in Jehovah, the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4), and the promise that those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29).##imported-begin##C.
