

Giovonna Helene Elliott

May 7, 1956 - June 15, 2022

GIOVANNA HELENE ELLIOTT, daughter of the late William Edgar Day and Gertrude Helene Molock, was born on May 7, 1956 in Baltimore, MD. After a short illness, she went to be with her Lord on Wednesday, June 8, 2022.

She was affectionately called “Gio” by her family and friends. Gio graduated from Eastern High School. She later attended Strayer University for business. For several years she was employed with the State of Maryland’s Department of Social Services. As she furthered her career, she gained employment at the United States Post Office as a Data Collection Technician where she received numerous awards for appreciation of dedicated service for thirty years, retiring on July 29, 2016.

In 1978, Gio met the love of her life Clinton Elliot. Oh, Happy Days! They were united in marriage on July 15, 1994 ending in forty-four years of Heavenly Bliss. The couple enjoyed traveling, playing cards (Pinochle), and making frequent visits to the casinos. Her favorite hobbies were reading, sewing and water aerobics. Gio was an active member of Brown’s Memorial Baptist Church. She truly loved her Pastor and church family. Let’s not forget how much she loved talking for very long hours with her mother and dear friends every day (LOL). Gio is preceded by her mother Gertrude, father William and her brother Keith.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Clinton Leroy Elliott; sisters, Myra and Tamara; niece, Marquia; nephew, Maurice; five sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law, and a host of great-nieces, -nephews, cousins and devoted friends. A special tribute to her step-mom, Clarice and a devoted sister, Bernice.
