

Girtha Diane Benson-Hopewell

June 22, 1954 - December 15, 2002

Girtha D. Benson-Hopewell, daughter of Girtha L. White-Dorrah and the late William M. Dorrah Sr. was born June 22, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on December 15, 2002. She received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. She was a proud graduate of Frederick Douglass Senior High School. She attended Baltimore Community College and Morgan State University where she received a Bachelor Degree in Criminal Justice. She was employed with the Department of Parole and Probation. She later worked as a counselor for People Encouraging People. Girtha also known as Brighty was known for her smiles and caring heart. She loved family gatherings especially spending time with her grandchildren. She loved creating nicknames (she had a nickname for every family member) and eating crabs and singing her favorite song, "I'll Always Love My Momma." She will be sincerely missed by all. She leaves to mourn: her mother, Girtha L. White-Dorrah; three daughters, Tonya Benson, Tracy Thompson and Tammy Randolph; one son, Thomas Randolph III; her husband, Harold Hopewell; eight grandchildren, Latonya, Tony, Montez, Tyiesha, Davontae, Dontaysha, Desjane and Thomas IV; four sisters, Gussie Goodman, Brenda Cox, Darlene Dorrah and Doretha Dorran; one brother, Willie White Sr.; one aunt, Callie Gary; one uncle, Samuel Dorrah; and a host of nieces, nephews, in-laws and friends.
