

Girtha L. White

February 19, 1926 - March 24, 2003

Girtha Lee White, the daughter of the late Willie and Gussie Davis was born February 19, 1926 in Montgomery, Alabama. She departed this life on March 24, 2003 after a lengthy illness. She received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. She was employed by Children's Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland as a dietician. She was employed there for more than twenty-five years until she retired. Upon retirement she enjoyed going to church, traveling and spending quality time with her family. She was a member of Greater Bethlehem Temple Church and greatly loved her church family. Her family and the many friends that adopted her as their own mother knew her as "Momma". If ever there was a need for advice and tender loving care, "Momma" was always there for you. Wherever you craved for a good home cooked meal "Mama's house" was the place to go. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends. She leaves to mourn: five children, one son, Willie J. White Sr.; four daughters, Gussie Goodman, Brenda Cox, Darlene Dorrah and Doretha Dorrah; one son-in-law, George L. Goodman; one daughter-in-law, Diane white; one sister-in-law, Kelly Gary; a host of other grandchildren and great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Mrs. White Family, I am very sorry because of the lost of your mother. I know you didn't have a good time when you took a vacation at home. When I were in school I ask Mrs. Parker where you were, and she said don't worry about it she have to make an emergency run about her mother. I had a feeling something happend about Mrs. Goodman's mom. I was very said when I heard that Mrs. White was deceased. So I prayed everynight, also I know that you will go throw the hurtness, that your mother had passed. But don't get made get glad, because you don't want to mess up your family beautiful fair.
