

Gladys A. Felder

January 16, 1929 - November 8, 2009

GLADYS A. FELDER, daughter of the late Alphonso and Elma Ferrette, was born July 16, 1929 in Charleston, South Carolina. She entered into eternal rest on November 8, 2009. She received her education at Burke Industrial High School in Charleston, where she focused on Home Economics. Gladys accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. She later married her high school sweetheart, Leroy D. Mosley; and from this union, her devoted son, Dazzell L. Mosley, was born. Years later, she met and married the love of her life, David Felder, in Baltimore, Maryland. Of this union their loving daughter, Carlotta M. Felder, was born. Gladys Felder was a resident of the Ashburton Community where everyone lovingly knew her as "Mother Dear." A proud homeowner for forty-six years, she grew close to all of her friends and neighbors. She was a true friend and devoted family woman who always stressed that family comes first. Gladys will be deeply missed by everyone that knew and loved her. Preceding her in death are her loving husband David Felder, two brothers Alphonso Ferrette and Calvin Ferrette, and her beloved daughter Carlotta M. Felder. She leaves to cherish her memory: her sister, Ruby Ferrette Jenkins; son, Dazzell L. Mosley; daughter-in-law, Patricia Mosley; five grandchildren, Latoscha (Will) Harris, Jerome Mosley, Kellie (Christopher) Handy, Kimerlie Mosley, and Kylon Mosley; three great-grandchildren, Kasie Griffin, Christopher Handy, and Kobie Handy; six nieces and three nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. One day you have the hope of seeing Mrs Felder again in the promised hope of the ressurection. The apostle Paul stated at Acts 24:15 "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." All who are in the memorial tombs that is, in Jehovah's memory, will hear the voice of his son, Jesus, and they will come back to life. John 5:28,29. May you find much comfort in Jehovah's promises, and may your precious memories of Gladys help you to endure until that glorious day of salvation arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to Ms. Felder's family. The loss of a loved one can seem untimely and can be painful at any age, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, the resurrection hope is expressed at Daniel 12:2, which states, "many asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." These are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2, May you continue to find comfort in your cherished memories and in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
