

Gladys Collins

June 12, 1941 - February 11, 2005

Gladys Collins was born on June 12, 1941, to Henry and Hallie Ollie in City Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. On February 11, 2005, she peacefully passed away. Gladys attended church and school in Howard County and Baltimore City. She graduated from Frederick Douglass High School, then attended Provident School of Nursing and Morgan State College. She worked at the Motor Vehicles Administration and ended her career at Social Security Administration after 27 years. Gladys married John L. Collins, Jr. and had two sons, John III (now deceased) and Kevin, Sr. She loved to read, talk and cook. She made up many of her recipes and tried them out on family and friends. Many of her co-workers affectionately called her "Mother Collins." She was always giving advice; her famous words to all those close to her were, "You need to agree to disagree." She leaves to mourn: her husband, John, Sr.; a son, Kevin, Sr.; five grandchildren, Tiffany, Kevin, Jr., Korey, Nykiah, and Kayla; two brothers, Louis and Melvin Ollie; two sisters, Elaine White and Jean Martin; two sisters-in-law, Ira and Mary Ollie; one aunt, Ione Johnson; her SSA children, Vanessa Shanton, Donna McNair, Duane English, and Ann Swann; Linette Roberts who checked on her needs everyday and Smith Tweedy, a devoted friend for 27 years who stuck with her all the way; and a host of other relatives and friends. Recently her uncle Frank Johnson and a special cousin Hazel Motley preceded her in death.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
