

Gladys E. Thomas

April 25, 1935 - December 2, 2009

GLADYS ESTELLE THOMAS, devoted daughter, sister, aunt and friend, was born in Prospect, Virginia on April 25, 1935 to the late Rev. Richard Thomas Geraldine Street Thomas. God called her home to rest on December 2, 2009. She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. Gladys was also employed by the Baltimore City Public School System for over twenty-five years, from which she retired in 1996 to devote her time to care for her ailing mother, the late Geraldine Street Thomas. Gladys was a faithful member of the Eastside Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Cleveland Alexander, Sr. She served on the choir and at times was the soloist. Many loved to hear her beautiful voice; favorite songs were "Even Me" and "Lord I Am So Grateful." Although Gladys never had any biological children, she was like a mother to all of her nieces and nephews, but especially Katrice Thompson, whom she has reared and nurtured in her home since birth. Preceding her death were three sisters Daisy Allmond, Denise Thomas and Carol Howell and brother Richard Thomas Jr. She leaves to cherish her memory: sisters, Mary Cofield of Sacramento, California and Annah Montgomery of Gaffney, S.C. (Dwayne); devoted niece, Tiffany Howard; close nieces, Katrice, Chriseria and Danielle. She also leaves fifty-nine nieces, fifty-eight nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Gladys E. Thomas

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM