

Gladys Elizabeth Holmes

August 18, 1914 - June 10, 2008

“As a particle of sand in an hour glass slowly falls through the passage way, indicating the passages that is the link between mortal life and life everlasting.” God picked a beautiful rose from a flower garden and took her home for a well deserved rest. This beautiful rose was named Gladys Elizabeth Holmes. Mrs. Holmes was born in Baltimore, Maryland on August 14, 1918 to the late Greemon and Marina Winfield. She was the oldest of five children with three preceding her in death. She received her education in Hanover County in Virginia and Baltimore, Maryland. After graduating from high school in Baltimore, she attended a beauty culture school in the city. Upon completion of school, she worked as a beautician until she was able to establish her own business, called “GladysNook”. In 1965, she fully retired. At an early age, she accepted Christ at Mt. Salem Baptist Church. When she moved to Baltimore, Maryland, she became affiliated with City Temple Baptist Church for over sixty years. She attended church regularly until the decline of her health. She returned to Mechanicsville, Virginia and was taken care of by her son, Percell Lewis. Although she was preceded in death by her parents, husband, and son (Charles T. Lewis), she leaves to cherish fond memories to devoted son, Percell Lewis of Mechanicsville, Virginia; devoted brother, John (Bill) Wingfield, Sr. of Baltimore, MD; granddaughter, Brenda Broadnax (Reuben); great granddaughter, Alexa Broadnax, all of Chesterfield, VA; niece, Connie Cooper (Anthony) of Alexandria, VA; grandson, Chauncy Lewis; nephews, Hampton Wingfield (Sandra), of Silver Springs, MD; Leon Wingfield (Lydia) of

Washington, DC, Mark Wingfield (Ashana) of Detroit, MI, Ivan Wingfield (Theresa) of Baltimore, MD; Jerrold Wingfield (Cassandra) of Glen Burnie, MD; and Franklin Wallace of West Virginia. Devoted friends include Lucretia Jackson, Beulah Jones, Nathaniel Harris, Carrie Lowry, and Adell Johnson.

“ I wish to extend my heartfelt sympathy to the family. The passing of a loved one is so painfuml and is something that no family should have to go through. This pain was not God"s purpose, because 1st John 4,8 tells us that God is love. One day he will end all suffering and death, because the book of Isaiah 25,8 tells us that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. The dead themselves will rise up in the ressurection, because Jehovah promises that they will hear the voice of his son Jesus, and all in those memorial tombs will come back to life. John 5:28,29 May these scriptures comfort you, and keep hope burning in your hearts.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
