

Gladys M. Brown

November 6, 1925 - July 1, 2005

On July 1, 2005, an angel was dispatched from Heaven to call Gladys May Brown home to glory. The angel whispered in Gladys's ear: "Well done my good and faithful servant, your work on earth is done. Jesus is waiting for you in Heaven." GLADYS MAY BROWN, devoted mother and grandmother, was born on November 6, 1925 in Wadesboro, North Carolina to Jerry and Marie McClendon. In 1954, she was united in holy matrimony to James L. Brown Sr., and together they raised two children. Gladys served as a cook at Bickford Restaurant for over twenty years. She retired to devote her life to serving her children, grandchildren, relatives and anyone else who needed a helping hand. At an early age, Gladys was baptized at West Rocky Ford Baptist Church in Wadesboro, N.C. She continued her Christian walk in Baltimore at Southern Baptist Church until joining Ebenezer Baptist with her husband under the leadership of Rev. Maxwell Johnson. She was a founding member of New Life Missionary Baptist Church and faithfully served as Deaconess until her health began to fail. Gladys M. Brown leaves to cherish her memory: one son, James L. Brown; one daughter, Freda M. Brown-Warren; one daughter-in-law, Barbara L. Brown; one son-in-law, Charles Warren; three grandchildren, Anthony and Michael Brown, Jacinta Hughes; one granddaughter-in-law, Ronae Brown; one grandson-in-law, Antonio Hughes; seven great-grandchildren, Michael Turner, Anthony, Jerel, Mariah, Tanika, Donneka and McKeighla Brown; two sisters, Inez Horne of New Jersey and Lois Cook (George) of New Jersey; two sisters-in-law, Florine Jones and Mary Helen Brown; and hosts of loving cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
