

Gladys M. Edmonds

December 12, 1931 - December 8, 2004

Gladys Edmonds, daughter of Wilson and Cora Walker, was born on December 31, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on December 8, 2004 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. In her early teens, she was employed at St. Joseph's Hospital. In 1948, she left Baltimore and moved to New York City where she worked as a housekeeper. Later, she would be trained as a Nurse's Aide and worked at Coney Island Hospital. In 1951, Gladys married Lawrence Edmonds. Gladys loved to laugh and eat good food, mainly anything sweet. She was a joy to be around. Her love for church and the gospel were well known. Mahalia Jackson was her favorite gospel artist. Gladys was a true and devoted friend, always willing to help and lend a hand. In her later years she would become a senior companion to the elderly. She leaves to mourn: her beloved family members-daughter, Gloria Bailey of Brooklyn, New York; granddaughter, Kim Bailey of Brooklyn, New York; two grandsons, Vinnie Jr. and Kalil; brother, Robert Walker of Baltimore, Maryland and Corrine Jenkins of Colorado; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. In difficult times such as this, it is comforting to know that "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those that are crushed in spirit he saves". Psalm 34:14. May you all draw comfort from the holy scriptures.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. It is unfortunate that we have to feel the pain and sorrow associated with the death of our loved ones. May you draw comfort from the hope expressed at Acts 24:15 that says, " and I have hope toward God...that there is going to be a resurrection..."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Our family receives much comfort from the Bible. Job 14:14 asks 'If one dies can he live again?'. Verse 15 assures us- Almighty God "will call" and the dead "will answer", will come back to life. The dead will come back to a trouble-free paradise earth with no more sickness, sorrow, death or pain. (Please read Isaiah 33:24, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43. May you receive much comfort and strength from these divinely inspired promises.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
