

Gladys Mclean

October 29, 1933 - October 11, 2009

GLADYS McLEAN, daughter of the late Pauline Little Dockery, was born on October 29, 1933 in Ansonville, North Carolina. She departed this life on October 11, 2009 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in North Carolina. She later took up residency in Richmond, Virginia, where she met her first husband and started a family. She attended public school in Anson County, North Carolina. She was well-liked and made friends easily. She was also very family oriented and tried to keep the family together. She later met her second husband, had a family and moved to Baltimore, where she remained. She was a member of Community Baptist Church and was saved at a young age. She loved life and was an interior decorator. She has eight children, three deceased and five remaining. She is survived by: Gladys Bradford a.k.a. Gail, Murture and Annie Bradford, Elaine McLean and Edward Bradford; her grandchildren, Ryan, Colette, Willie, Ashley, Jasmin, Jamal and Angel; great-grandchildren, Dean, Anthony and Jada; sisters, Barbara Slaughter and Margarett Winfield; brother, Moses Sturdivant; stepfather, Moses Sturdivant Sr.; nieces, Renee Slaughter and Vickie Bonds; nephew, James, Kenny and Andrew Bonds; husband, Edward L. McLean; first cousins, Lillie Beth Price, Anita White, Thomas Price and Jessie Ruth; a host of younger cousins, Kandace, Kim, Michael, Junior, Vaughn and Jada; great-nieces, great-nephews, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Gladys Mclean

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I would like to convey my sympathy for your loss. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in Jehovah God and the many wonderful promises found in His word the Bible because Titus1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I always looked at Aunt Gladys as a second mother. We always sat and talked, and shared laughter. She was a person that believed in doing the right things. She was very outspoken, and meant everything she said. I often looked to her for advice on some of the things that I was going through in my personal life. I talked with her more then I did my own mother, and I knew that it would not go any further. She always made me feel like I was a part of the family. I remember when I first met her, she asked me "are you really married to my cousin?" I smiled and said yes. From that day forth she and I became close friends. We stayed in touch even through her illness. I can honstly say I truly Loved Aunt Gladys. "Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another", 1John 4:11. She will Truly be Missed. Betty##imported-begin##Betty Price##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM