

Gladys Elizabeth Pascual

February 17, 1925 - November 25, 2022

Gladys Elizabeth Pascual, peacefully departed surrounded by family on November 25, 2022.

She was born on February 17, 1925, in Glen Allen, Virginia, to the late Charles "Charlie" Booker and Mary Belle Booker. Gladys was preceded in death by her husband, Angelo E. Pascual, Sr., daughter Consuelo Pascual and Nina Pascual, and nine brothers and sisters. She is survived by daughters Raymonda Peatross, Bernadette Pascual, and Angelo E. Pascual Jr. (Kendra); devoted grandson David Pascual who never left her side, granddaughter Gabrielle Williams who was devoted to her needs; 6 additional grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren; a dedicated niece Mary Anne Burley who maintained weekly phone calls, plus a host of nieces and nephews.

Gladys committed her life to God early in a baptism in the river. Gladys was the eldest member of Mount Olive Baptist Church and was honored as a trailblazer in 2019. Gladys was educated in Henrico County Public Schools. After graduation, she moved to Harlem, New York, alongside her sister "Bea," where she maintained a restaurant. After marrying Angelo E. Pascual Sr in 1950, she returned to Glen Allen, Virginia. Gladys's life was dedicated to loving her family and anyone she met. Gladys enjoyed cleaning and cooking on Sundays for the family. In addition, Gladys loved playing card games; her favorite was solitaire. However, her greatest gift was the love she showed to everyone. She never took anyone's love for her for granted, which she always expressed by replying, "you know I love you." Her smile and zest for life will be missed by all who knew her, but if you believe the way she believed, we will one day meet again in God's kingdom.

"Tis often we remember how
You touched our lives with love
The time we spent before you went
To join the lord above.
But death is like a journey,
It does not mean the end.
For soon, we too shall take that trip and be with you again.

“ To the Pascual family praying for your peace, strength, and understanding. Gma Pascual was a very humble, kind, and loving woman. She welcomed my children and I into her home and tried to feed us everytime we came. She always had a piece of wisdom for me. I am thankful for her blessing my life. R.I.P Gma.....love Leticia Suber and family.

“ To the PASCUAL Family, extended family/friends of the beloved Gladys Elizabeth (Booker) Pascual ...May you find comfort in the words of Jesus Christ, Our Saviour/Redeemer, " Peace I leave with you, my peace I give you ... Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." John 14:27; and know that " They are not dead who live in the hearts they leave behind to speak their name, and who they were upon mother Earth." A Tuscarora Tribe (of the Iroquois Confederation of Six Nations) quote.

Aunt Gladys you will never be forgotten! Not your radiant smile, beautiful soul, kindness, sense of style, faith journey (that started with your baptism @ Echo Lake with my daddy/other cousins/friends as baptismal candidates, circa 1936 for the right hand of fellowship into Mt. Olive Baptist Church), laughter, resilience, sharp money management, practical wisdom, devotion to family/friends, Sunday dinners, hard-work ethic, family gatherings, and the good/difficult times you shared with many over your almost 100 years! While your "physical" absence hurts, your "presence" lingers in our hearts, and is etched vividly inside our memory forever! ❤️ your cousin, Buddy Sublett's daughter 🕊️🦋🌻
