

Gladys Ross Stevenson

January 14, 1929 - March 7, 2014

GLADYS ROSS STEVENSON (affectionately called Gay by family), daughter of Lucy Tillman and Lester Henry, was born on January 14, 1929 in Sparrows Point, Maryland. She departed this life on March 7, 2014 after a brief illness.

She received her education at the Bragg School in Sparrows Point, Maryland, from which she graduated. She became a nurse in her earlier years and held various jobs throughout Baltimore County and Baltimore City. She joined Union Baptist Church at a young age.

She met and married Westley Ross, and out of that union Westley Ross and Maurice Ross (who both preceded her in death) were born. She later met and married John Stevenson (who also preceded her in death).

Gladys (Gay) had a sparkling smile and personality. She truly was a people person. Gladys leaves to cherish her memory: eight grandkids, Stacey Meads, Cassandra Moore, Darnel Ross, Thomas Phillips, Crystal Ross, India Ross, Gary Ross, Tavon Ross; and a host of great-grands. She also leaves a loving and devoted friend, William Barksdale; a host of other relatives and friends.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took His hand when I heard His call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
I found that peace at the end of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He has set me free.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Stevenson Family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He promises our dear loved ones a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. He even assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ To the Stevenson family: I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Death causes so much pain and sorrow. I pray that Jehovah God will comfort and support you all during this time of sorrow. God has promised to one day put an end to death forever, what a blessing that will be.-Isaiah 25:8. Until that time comes, may Jehovah bless all of you.

“ I am so very sorry for the loss of your dear family member. May God speed you comfort in the days to come. Sometimes knowing the true condition of ones who have passed can assist. God tells us in the Bible, they no longer suffer, hurt, or even have to cope with the anxieties of life. At Ecclesiastes 9:5 in the Bible, God tells us “...the dead are conscious of nothing at all...” I would love to have comforting Bible discussions with anyone interested.
