“ I would like to express my sympathy to Mr. Johnson's family and friends. When death separates us from our loved ones, especially one so young, deep sorrow can result. Please be assured that the "Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort" wants to help you during your tribulation.-2Corinthians 1:3,4. Yes, Isaiah 25:8, Daniel 12:2, and Revelation 21:4 are promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family of Glen Johnson - I would like to express my deepest sympathy. It's difficult to cope with a death of a loved one. The Bible calls death "the last enemy" - 1 Cor 15:26. God promises that "your dead ones will live" - Isa 26.19. This hope is sure to come true because God's words that he speaks "will prove to be" - Isa 55:11. I hope that you you will find comfort from prayer to God, the Bible promises, and precious memories.##imported-begin##Janita Jasper##imported-end##

“ Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. The Bible provides us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and...wipe the tears from all faces". May these words bring you a measure of comfort in this time of sorrow.
