

Glen Dale Wiggins, Jr

April 21, 1990 - March 5, 2013

GLEN DALE WIGGINS, JR one of four sons of Ms. Wanda Bradford, was born on April 21, 1990 at Maryland General in Baltimore, Maryland . He was called home on March 5, 2013.

He was educated early on in his journey from the Baltimore City Public School System . Staff at his school immediately saw potential in Glen as far as his work ethic, and his eagerness to learn. After he finished his elementary school course, he signed on to start school at Boys Latin in Baltimore. One of Maryland's top charter schools, where he thrived and picked up a desire to understand politics, which he loved.

Glen was known for being quiet and very well mannered. Everyone he 's met, he left an impression with them which made him unforgettable. Glen also cared deeply for his family, especially his mother and brothers. In his spare time he enjoyed reading as well as keeping up with modern technology, There was no computer he couldn't manage. Glen was also an avid gamer. He loved playing his games on play station 3, the original version. Which he loved the fact that it could play the older classic games he enjoyed.

He leaves behind to mourn; his mother , Wanda Bradford; his three brothers, Robert Morton 3rd a.k.a. "Peanut" Davon Morton a.k.a. "Vonnie" and Dalton Bradford; his nieces, Tyjahnae Morton and Ryan Morton and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends, But will gratefully and gratefully join his grandmother, Bythema Bradford in heavens eternal resting place.

“ To the family of Glen Dale Wiggins Jr.:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in the scriptures at Revelation 21:4 "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore."

“ Dear Mother of Glen,
My condolences on the tragic loss of your young son.
As a mother, I cannot imagine your pain.
At tragic times like this , grieving ones need comfort. and the Bible is the best place to find it.
-Romans 15:4. says that "through our comfort from the scriptures, we might have hope"
