

Glenda P. Logan

March 18, 1952 - August 22, 2014

Glenda Pandora Jordan-loGan was the first born into the union of Herman Jordan and Eddie Dee Jordan on March 18, 1952. She died peacefully in her sleep after a losing battle with a major pancreatic attack due to diabetes. Glenda was born and raised in Baltimore. She attended Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Northwestern High School in June, 1970. She majored in business with a minor in music. Glenda continued her education at Morgan State College. From there, she went on to pursue her chosen career as an Executive Secretary. Her early jobs were as a receptionist, and due to the old steadfast racial divide during the early 1970s, major law firms were slow to hire African-American secretaries. Nevertheless, she got her foot in the door through those receptionist jobs and worked her way up the ladder. In January 1975, her big break came with employment at Frank, Bernstein, et al where she performed legal secretarial duties in commercial real-estate and civil litigation. At that firm, she worked for several different lawyers each with their own specialized field of law. Glenda stayed with that firm until 1987. As a result of working at this firm, she gained invaluable experience and developed an outstanding resume, which she used to attain her ultimate career goal of Executive Secretary. In June 1987, Glenda had the opportunity to interview for a position with a distinguished young rising star in the legal field named William J. Murphy. Mr. Murphy branched out from a large law firm in Washington D.C. and established his practice here in Baltimore. As a litigation lawyer, he specialized in defendant representation in medical and legal malpractice cases. Glenda was Mr. Murphy's private secretary and remained in his employ for many years as he rose to become one of the top litigation lawyers in the Washington D.C./Maryland area. Glenda was married twice but both marriages ended in divorce. However, she found true love and lasting companionship with Tony Leftwich in October of 2004. Tony and Glenda lived on Bolton Street in Baltimore City for over ten years, where they enjoyed his two daughters, Sade and Naeemah (and her husband Jason), and three beautiful grandchildren, Cyrin, Madden and Marley. Glenda's only sibling, her brother Jerome, and her father Herman Jordan, preceded her in death. She leaves to mourn her death: her mother, Mrs. Eddie D. Jordan; her very special aunt, Bessie Williams; a nephew, Darrell Jordan; an uncle and aunt, Raymond Heard and his wife, Tish; and a host of cousins and friends. Glenda was a long-time member of New Psalmist Baptist Church. She also attended church services at Israel Baptist Church. A special "thank you" to the Mustard Seed Group and its members where Glenda was a long-time member.

“ The loss of a loved one can be devastating if we don't have faith and hope to cling to, but God Jehovah promised us a that one day we can see our loved ones again. Jesus Christ gave up his life freely for us to have an opportunity to live again. John 3:16 and John 5:28,29. I hope these Bible passages will bring you some comfort. If you have any comments or questions please email me or go to JW.ORG

“ Please accept my sincere condolences to your family during this difficult time. Please take comfort from these scriptures that the God of all comfort provides a real hope of being reunited with your loved one.-John 5:28, 29; 1 Corinthians 15:26.

My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he ressurected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ I am saddened to learn of the loss of your beloved Glenda. May you draw much comfort in the knowledge that Our Loving Creator has already made provision to awaken her from sleep. This is no mere dream. The Bible documents eight eye witnessed accounts of persons who were brought back to life. Thus giving all mankind of fore gleam of the global Resurrection to come. Jesus Himself speaks of this at John 5:28 and 29 where it reads in part, "Do not be amazed by this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the Memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out.....". This will be to a cleansed Paradise earth where, sickness death and sorrow will be gone forever (Psalms 37:9-11, 29). This is the earth Glenda will awaken to. Until that day, may your treasured memories of her life, and this wonderful, very real hope sooth your broken hearts. God is not like us, He always keeps his promises!! (Titus 1:2). Mrs. D. Ward.
