

Glendell Johns

May 27, 1945 - January 13, 2002

Glendell Y. Johns, daughter of the late Isaiah and Clara Yarborough, was born on May 27, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 13, 2002 after a lengthy illness. She completed her grade school education at Douglass High School in Baltimore after which she attended Morgan State College. At the age of 21, after a period of employment with the U.S. Postal Service, she married Paul Johns and assumed a career of full-time wife and mother. This marriage was blessed with two children, Jonathan and Hamilton. Glendell placed a very high value on education and morals. These standards were reflected throughout her life as well as those of her children. Glendell loved her family. She leaves to mourn: her husband, Paul L. Johns; two sons, Hamilton J. Johns and Jonathan P. Johns, M.D.; two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Livingston and Mrs. Jimmie Gasque; a mother-in-law, three sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the day of her life.---Proverbs 31:10-12 Lovingly submitted, The Family
