

Glenice Mae Harris

December 14, 1944 - July 1, 2013

On July 1, 2013, the circle of life silently closed for Glenice Mae Harris, affectionally known to many as “Peggy” at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Peggy was born December 14, 1944 to the late James and Ida Jackson.

Peggy graduated from Frederick Douglas High School, and received her Licensed Practical Nurse Degree (LPN) From Howard University she worked at several Healthy Facilities; Spring Grove, Walter P. Carter, Perking and Total Health Care, and retired after years of service. Peggy accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her Personal Savior, became a member of Greater Faith Community Church, was ordained as a Minister, and fulfilled the call as an assistant Pastor. In 1981, Peggy was unity in Holy Matrimony to Wendell Harris, Sr.

Peggy was wonderful personality and made friends wherever she went. She carried God's Love and it showed through her acts and deeds for others. Peggy enjoyed spending time bestowing unconditional Love on her family and friends, more than anything else. Peggy was very sassy & stylist with the clothing and hats, that she loved to wear.

Peggy went home to be with her son Derrick Lawrence St. Thomas. Peggy leaves a loving Husband, Wendell Harris, Sr., two sons – Welton Sampson and Wendell Harris, Jr., one adopted daughter – Eunice L. Carr, a sister Barbara Street, three brothers., James Jackson, Sr., John Jackson, George Norris, a mother-in-law, Delilah Skinner, five brothers-in-laws, six sister-in-laws, a nephew, James Jackson III – who shared a close bond with, and host of nieces, nephews, family and dear friends to cherish in their fond memories of Peggy. Peggy's sister, Darlene Jones and brother, James Edward Jackson preceded her in death.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the lost of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches that the dead will live again. While Jesus was on earth, he showed that he is able to resurrect the dead. Under the rule of his Kingdom, the heavenly King Jesus Christ will resurrect untold numbers of people to life here on earth, but under peaceful and righteous conditions. (Acts 24:15; 2 Peter 3:13)

“ I extend my deepest condolences to the family of Glenice Harris. I am deeply saddened to hear of your lost. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort, who helps us cope with our grief. It can be so hard to face each day without our loved one; but, the love and support of family and friends can help ease your pain and sorrow. The Bible promises at Revelation 21:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

We look forward to seeing Ms. Harris again on a paradise earth.
(Psalms 37:9,10,11,29)
