

Glenn T. Brown

January 22, 1957 - July 5, 2013

GLENN THOMAS BROWN, known to family and friends as “Tommy”, son of the late Joseph N. Brown and Shirley E. Brown, was born on January 22, 1957. He departed this life on July 5, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

He was born in Omaha, Nebraska, lived in Puerto Rico and later the family moved to Baltimore, Maryland at the age of seven. He attended the Baltimore City Public School System.

He was employed at Ziebart Incorporated. He also worked for years at Norman Holt Flower Shop and worked with long-time friend, “Van” doing home improvement.

He married Karen Boozer in 1977, and out of this union two children were born, Glenn and Chanel.

Tommy was a big fan of Sci-fi movies, cartoons, fishing and crabbing. He loved barbecuing and spending time with family and friends.

He leaves to mourn: his children, Sean, Glenn, Chanel, Tanesha and Dante, who preceded him in death; mother, Shirley Brown; sisters, Shirlean Potts, Bonita Henson, Karen (Jay), Angela and Becky, who resides in California (his sister, Alice; and brothers, Joseph and David preceded him in death); sister-in-law, Renee Brown; brothers-in-law, Arthur Maison, Tony Potts and Alfonzo Henson; uncle Jerome Carter (Teresa); great-aunt, Delores Stokes; nieces, nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.
