

Glenn David Burnett

July 3, 1966 - December 1, 2017

Glenn David Burnett departed this life suddenly on December 1, 2017. Glenn was born in Camden, New Jersey to Mary Poe (pre-deceased) and Frederick Burnett, Sr. Glenn was mechanically inclined at a very young age, taking apart toasters and vacuum cleaners to his mother's shagrin. He was a master mechanic and printing guru. He loved the printing trade craft and worked at many different companies throughout the years. He was a hardworking man being a veteran of the US Army and even worked a stint as an armed SPO. Glenn was an avid car enthusiast and collected cars of all vintages and scales and had a very impressive car collection. Glenn loved Sci-Fi and old movies, George Clinton (Funkadelic) and was a Raiders fan. He also knew how to play the acoustic guitar, studied the art of Kung Fu, was a trivia buff and had the memory of an elephant. Glenn had a great appreciation for fish and had a beautiful fish tank, but mostly he loved dogs and his best buddy as of recently was Broddy Alexander Burnett. He loved to cook, breakfast and pasta was his specialty and he had a special way of prepping food with precision. He was meticulously dapper and LOVED to wear nice suits when he was not working the printing presses. He had a very infectious smile and his laugh was animated which would make you burst at the seams. He leaves to cherish his memory a host of beloved relatives, friends, work family and neighbors. Glenn will surely be missed by everyone he came into contact with.
