

Glenn Samuel Jones

March 18, 1954 - September 16, 2005

GLENN S. JONES, son of Teresa Jones and the late Moses S. Jones, was born on March 18, 1954 in Flushing, New York. He departed this life on September 16, 2005, from a long-term illness. Glenn grew up in Astoria, Queens where he attended The New York City Public Schools. He graduated from Automotive High School in Brooklyn, New York. There he was the captain of the high school basketball team and also developed his love for cars. He furthered his education by attending college in Lorain, Ohio under an athletic scholarship. Glenn was employed at the American Cancer Society in New York City, prior to relocating to Columbia, Maryland. In Maryland he was employed at Howard County General Hospital. Glenn displayed a passion for his family and friends equal only by his love for all things fast "two wheels or four." This passion led him and his baby, a white-on-white Corvette, to the Baltimore County Corvette Club, which became his extended family and his social life. Glenn was always admired for his strong will, determination and positive outlook on life. Glenn enjoyed his family and friends and was always good at "keeping in touch." Glenn touched the lives of many and will be greatly missed. Glenn leaves to mourn: a devoted mother, Teresa Jones; a sister, RenŽe Danzy; and brother-in-law, Danny Danzy; sister-in-law, Debra Jones; brother-in-law, Dennis Saxon; aunts, Millicent McLennan, Luisa McLennan Beneby and Maria McLennan; nephews, Dennis, Trevor, Timothy and Brandon; nieces, Brandi, AvŽ and Kristina; and several cousins. He is also remembered by hundreds of extended family members and loving friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear family of Glenn, My deepest sympathy in the loss of Glenn. I delivered Meals on Wheels to Glenn every Tuesday for several years and was always inspired by his wonderful attitude despite his many trials with illness. He is in my thoughts and prayers at this sad time. I shall miss him on my Route.##imported-begin##Elaine Shelly##imported-end##
