

Glennie L. Freeland

February 19, 1955 - July 14, 2007

No obituary found for this tribute.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. Though I did not know Glennie well, I had the privilege of meeting her and talking with her on several occasions. I know that it is truly difficult to cope with the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, be assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). From my discussion with Glennie, I know that she also believed in these promises. May they provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss these wonderful promises further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ There are just no words intense enough to describe the depth of the emotions felt when a loved one dies, but, my most heartfelt sympathies are extended to the Freeland family. Glennie, I met you only briefly but through your brother Ty I feel that I've known you forever. You will be missed.##imported-begin##Rosemary Fauntleroy##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM