“ I am very sorry for your loss. In Revelation chapter 21:4, "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I hope this scripture will give you much comfort. Sincerely, C. Bain##imported-begin##Charlotte Bain##imported-end##

“ Rhonda, you and the kids have been a dynamic team for your husband in every way as you all provided him love and comfort for the past (almost 3) years since his illness. I watched as you left work only to take a breath and start the evening shift of taking care of your husband. You did this without complaining and so did all of your children especially. Take it easy, you have been a remarkable wife, let not your heart be heavy about any matters or people. All is yours in the sight of our Lord. Burnel and Marian send their love to you and your children also. GOD BLESS###imported-begin##Mrs. Kendall-Briggs###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". Also, Isaiah 25:8 lovingly informs us: "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". May you receive much comfort and strength as you reflect on this wonderful hope found in the Bible.###imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill###imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere sympathy over the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to a time when mourning will be a thing of the past-1Cor115:26 talks about a time when "the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing". Please continue to draw close to the "God of all comfort" and he will give you the strength to get through (1Cor1:3-4). Warmest regards, C. Murphy###imported-begin##C. Murphy###imported-end##

“ I'd like to express my sympathy to Mr. Adams' family and friends. The loss of a loved one is very painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death our "enemy." However, God promises to do away with that enemy, death, and all the pain it causes at 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. I hope this message comforts your hearts.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
