

Gloria A. Phillips

April 8, 1925 - January 8, 2002

Gloria Ardauntais Phillips, daughter of the late Clyde R. and Sallie Sample, was born April 8, 1925 in Crisfield, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on January 8, 2002. Gloria accepted Christ into her life at an early age and was baptized in Crisfield, Maryland. She lived to praise the Lord's Holy Name. She attended and graduated from Crisfield Colored High School the 31st day of May 1944. Gloria married the late Aaron C. Phillips Sr., in 1946, after she moved to Baltimore, Maryland. She worked and taught in the Baltimore City Public School System for a number of years. Early in her teaching endeavors she actually taught two of her own, Gregory and Bernadette Phillips. She went on to work in administrative capacity while under the tutelage of Mr. and Mrs. Pinderhughes. Later she accepted employment with the BWI Airport and Services. Gloria shortly returned to her true calling and was again employed into the educational system at the Harbor City Learning Center. Gloria was a strong, loving and caring woman, who was able to relate to anyone and everyone. She was sincere in what she believed and what she relayed. She spoke of goodness and tried to live her life that way. The words she had for others were that of truth and to beautify verses pacify. She was a settled minded and well-mannered woman as well as a believer of the Lord and his word. To know her was a pleasure, loving her is a blessing and to be loved by her was gift.. Amen to Gloria. Her daughter, Bernadette Phillips, preceded Gloria in death. Gloria was survived by: three daughters, Rhonda, Michelle and Sheila Phillips all of Baltimore, Maryland; three sons, Aaron and Gregory Phillips of Baltimore, Maryland and Darryl Phillips from Ohio; twenty-five grandchildren, thirty great-grandchildren, aunts and uncles-in-law, daughters-in-law, daughters-in-law and granddaughters-in-law, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
