

Gloria D. Anderson

April 8, 1931 - January 12, 2012

GLORIA DEAN ANDERSON was born in Baltimore City to the late George Benjamin and Blanche Juliet Smith, on April 8, 1931

She attended Dunbar High School and was a product of Dunbar Night School. Gloria always enjoyed school and learning, especially, math . She loved reading many different kinds of books from biographies to romance novels.

She accepted Christ at an early age and received her religious training at the Israel Baptist, when she attended service with her godmother, Hattie Bond.

During one of her last conversations with her daughter, Gloria mentioned that she had fallen behind in her Bible Studies. It appeared that her last scripture that she was studying was II Corinthians 4:6.

Gloria was a very accomplished seamstress. She also loved to crochet, knit, cook and work on home projects. If there was a baby being born in the family or a friend of the family, you knew that Gloria would be crocheting a blanket, sweater and a hat.

She loved her six grandchildren and would talk about them to anyone that would listen; but she also enjoyed her cat, Gizzy. She said that he kept her from being lonely.

Gloria worked for the Post office for 26 years and retired at the age of 60. It could be a very demanding job, but she stayed, in spite of the hardship of her many illnesses. She was Blessed to have many good friends there and relationships that many maintained and sustained her Throughout her retirement and her many admissions to the hospital.

Gloria was very charismatic person, who never met a stranger. She would hold a conversation with anyone, regardless, if you were in line at the grocery or a nurse or technician at the hospital.

“ Dear Calvin, I know there are no words to comfort you at this time. However, I do know that God's grace and mercies are sources for comfort. I pray that your family continues to be embraced the loving arms of God. He is there for us during the darkness hours and the brightness of day. Knowing those moments spent with her are memories that will continue all your days.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
