

Gloria Marie Burke-Carter

February 23, 1936 - August 1, 2010

GLORIA MARIE BURKE was the only child born to the late Delaware and Turnerlee Burke on February 23, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland. Gloria departed this life on August 1, 2010 after a lengthy illness.

She attended the Baltimore City Public School System. As a young woman she returned to Cofield, North Carolina where she married the late Elton M. Taylor. Many years later, she was remarried to the late Trent Carter.

Gloria was a lively and fun loving person who liked to travel. One of her favorite past times was going to the race track. She also enjoyed cooking and watching scary movies. She often prepared delicious meals for her family on many occasions. Her favorite dish was fried fish, collard greens, home-made macaroni salad and corn bread. Gloria was truly a loving and sincere person who would help anyone she could, and was always frank in her speaking. Gloria worked many years for the State of Maryland and later for Baltimore City where she retired in 1992.

Gloria Marie Carter leaves to cherish in her memory: her children, William H. Taylor of Cofield, North Carolina, Gloria Jean Taylor-Holloman of Virginia Beach, Virginia, Uvonna D. Taylor, Joanne D. Jones, Dijon Taylor, Julius D. Taylor, Tommy A. Rawlings, Robin G. Smith-Handy all of Baltimore, Maryland, and Calvin E. Mills of Round Rock, Texas. Also three daughters-in-law,

Barbara Johnson, Brenda Manley and Veronica Mills, fourteen grandchildren, (1 deceased), nine great-grandchildren, two great-great-granddaughters and a host of cousins, great cousins, relatives and friends.
