

Gloria C. Gillis

March 8, 1928 - September 20, 2006

GLORIA del CORO GILLIS, daughter of the late Francisco and Ingracia Domingo del Coro, was born on March 8, 1928 in Manila, Philippines. She departed this life on September 20, 2006 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Philippines. She married the late Lafayette Gillis while he was serving in the Philippines. Out of this union five children were born; Jumary, Patrick, Marshall Francisco, Cynthia and Bonita. Lovingly called Lola, she enjoyed cooking, sewing, shopping and being surrounded by family and friends; but most of all she loved watching wrestling on TV. She leaves to mourn: three daughters, Jumary West, Cynthia Mossman and Bonita Espinosa; two sons, Patrick Gillis and Marshall Francisco Gillis; two sons-in-law, Anthony S. Espinosa, Sr. and Clarence West, Sr.; two daughters-in-law, Rosalyn Gillis and Ritsuko Gillis; eleven grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends, especially the Ross family, where she considered Bennie Jr. her third son and Elian her "Boogie Lady."

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my condolences. Although I didn't have the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Gillis, I can imagine the pain your are feeling, and I'd like to share the scriptual hope of the ressurection with you. It is Jehovah God's purpose to bring those who have died back to life. He sent us his son Jesus to make this possible so that we could be done with sickness and death, and through his precious blood have the opportunity for everlasting life. John 3:16 lets us know, "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed but have everlasting life." While on earth, Jesus ressurected many, including Lazarus and a 12-year old girl. So by means of the ressurection is how we can be with our loved ones again who have died. May that wonderful hope sustain you, as well as your precious memories.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
