

Gloria Duckett

July 24, 1941 - February 23, 2004

Gloria Ella Mae Barbara (Bagley) Duckett was born to the late Pearlene Joanne Bagley and Alexander Bagley on July 24, 1941, in Chester, South Carolina. Mama, as she was called, moved with her family to Baltimore, Maryland, as a young child. She attended John Weston High School before entering a Social Services program at the Community College of Baltimore City. Upon completion of her program she became a Social Worker for Baltimore City Department of social Services until retirement. Mama was also a registered foster parent for at-risk teenagers. Mama was very family oriented and has long been the actin matriarch of our family. Everyone in the family, at some point, has come to Mama or 'Aunt Glo' for advice. In 1958, she married Lendell Duckett. There were three daughters born from their union-Joanie, Barbara and Linda. Her husband, Lendell, two brothers, William and Samuel, two sisters, Joyce and Lularene (Tee), and one grandchild, Reginald, preceded mama in death. She was welcomed into the gates of heaven on February 23, 2004 at Mercy Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. She will be missed, but we will never forget the love in her heart that she shared with us all. Mama is survived by: her "dear old Dad," Alexander Bagley; her loving stepmother, Christine Bagley; her brother, Kevin Bagley Sr.; her sister, Jacqueline Bagley; her three daughters, Joanne Duckett, Barbara Amos and Linda Hill; ten grandchildren, Shawnetta Jordan, David Oram Jr., Jaquetta Oram, Jacqueline Amos, Kyron Oram, Shaniece Banner, Justin Davis, Alexis Amos and De'Aunta; five great grandchildren, a host of loving nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Happy birthday Mama. I miss your physical presence, but I know for sure that you are with me nearly everyday and for that I thank you. I love you!

“ I will be forever grateful for your influence on my life. I remember how you used to let me destroy your very expensive work clothes so I could redesign them into something modern. Because of you I still see, I still shop in thrift stores, and I still remix my clothes. ❤️❤️❤️ 😊. You are amazing to me and a lot of others.

Mama also had aunt Shirley, and three more uncles who survived her that was not on her obituary by mistake . She was so close to aunt Shirley that I'm ashamed to say I couldn't think of her before my mother was buried and even after , my aunt brought it to my attention and she was very hurt by this again aunt Shirley I apologize but I know my mom knew you were there for her. I know my mom would've wanted me to acknowledge Aunt Shirley . Happy birthday mom I love you!!;!! Sending you my love up to you!!!!!!

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs. Duckett, Please accept my deepest sympathy. During this difficult time the Bible can be very encouraging. May you find comfort now and in the days to come from "...the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us all in all our tribulations..." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Continue to draw strength from each other and the scriptures.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
