

Gloria Jean Dyer

August 8, 1958 - March 19, 2018

Gloria Jean Dyer, daughter of the late Roy C. Dyer and Pearleen Johnson was the fifth sibling born on August 8, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on March 19, 2018 after she re-surrendered her life to God.

Gloria Jean Dyer affectionately known as “Glo Jean” enjoyed traveling and shopping.

She carried her lipstick and double-mint gum everywhere she went.

Glo Jean loved to be around her family and friends, spending time reminiscing and telling stories about the good ole days. She was a quiet person, but she definitely spoke what was on her mind. Dancing and sucking her thumb were her favorite things.

Glo Jean attended Dunbar Senior High School receiving a high school diploma in Health Education on June 9, 1977. Gloria further her education by majoring in Flabotomy at Sojourner Douglas College in Baltimore, Maryland.

Gloria’s last place of employment was the University of Maryland, specializing in general services.

Gloria Jean gave her life to Christ when she was a young child at the First Apostolic Faith Church. She visited her best friend's church, "Christ The King" on March 18, 2018 where she re-surrendered her life to God and was scheduled to be baptized again.

God ordered her steps preparing her for her place in Heaven and Eternal life. Gloria made peace with God by recommitting herself to God.

Gloria Jean Dyer was preceded in death by three (3) sisters, Cora Green, Ellease Johnson and Arnetta Dyer.

Gloria Jean Dyer leaves to cherish her memories: five (5) children, Lamont, Lakisha, Jermaine, Tyesha and Tyshay; six (6) grandchildren, Amaya, Adraus, Akayla, Adrea, Aiden and Bernard; three (3) sisters, Louellen Johnson, Audrey Dyer Brown and Tammia Miller-McIntosh; eight (8) nephews, seven (7) nieces, two (2) brothers-in-law; best friend, Vicki Woods; special friend, Frank Moore; and a host of other relatives and friends.
