

Gloria Freeman

July 21, 1927 - November 21, 2004

Gloria Yvonne Lyons Freeman, daughter of the late Jessie Marshall Lyons Taylor and Berndeen Lyons, was born on July 21, 1927 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was joined in matrimony to Eugene Freeman. She departed this life on Sunday, November 21, 2004 after a short illness. Gloria was a member of Saint James' Episcopal Church for over seventy years, receiving recognition in 1990 for fifty years of service. She served on the choir for many years and for a short time filled in as a pianist for the Sunday school. Gloria was faithful; one could depend on her being in church just about every Sunday, even though at times it was physically challenging. Gloria was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools, where she was graduated from Dunbar High School in 1944. She continued her education at Hampton Institute and Morgan College until her health prevented her from continuing. Gloria worked thirty-three years in Federal Service, working as a civilian for the U.S. Coast Guard at Curtis Bay, the Treasury department in Washington, D.C. and then continued at the Social Security Administration from which she retired in 1982. Gloria loved to bowl and won many trophies and quite a bit of cash, too. Would you believe it, she had a passion for modeling! She completed the Patricia Stevens Institute of Fashion and then worked part-time as a fashion model. She leaves to cherish her memory: aunt, Mamie Lee; brother, Marshall Thompson (Paulette); nieces, Evelyn Catherine, Gail, Marsha (Maurice), Karen, Valorie and Joey; nephews, Frederick and Michael (Joi); cousin, Paula (Allen); and goddaughter, Tramar Jennings; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
