“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to ask that you please accept my wholehearted condolences, knowing that I surely could not fully understand how you feel. I would just like to leave you with a comforting scripture that gives us not only hope for the future, but also some relief in our time of mourning. John the 5th chapter, verses 28 and 29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." Yes, in the very near future we will have the wonderful opportunity to welcome our dead loved ones who have fallen asleep in death back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29) May the words found in the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ I didn't personally know Gloria, but I sincerely sympathize with you, because death is truly a heartbreaking thing for any family to have to go through. Please remember that Jesus resurrected many back to life when he was here on the earth, thus demonstrating what he will lovingly do for mankind in the future resurrection. John 5:28,29 lets us know that one day all those sleeping in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out". Please read in the bible how Jesus raised a 12-year old little girl back to life. Jehovah has given all authority to his son to resurrect the dead, and one day, because of obedience to Jehovah and faith in his son, we do have the opportunity to see our loved ones come back to life.
