

Gloria Handy

June 4, 1951 - May 26, 2007

Gloria Jean Handy, daughter of Betty Mae Wright and the late James St. Rose, was born on June 4, 1951 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on May 26, 2007 after a lengthy illness. Two sisters preceded her in death. She received her education at Gilmore Elementary School #107 and graduated from Edmondson High School in Baltimore, Maryland in 1969. She was retired from Social Security Administration in June 2006 after thirty-one years of services and received numerous awards. She was raised and baptized at Ebenezer Baptist Church at age fifteen and in later years joined Christian Life Church. Gloria was loved by all who knew her. She loved to watch Emeril on the cooking channel, travel, fellowship with everyone, and loved smooth jazz music. She participated in various activities at her church and received many certificates. She was married to Michael Handy for thirty-seven years, and of this union they had one daughter Tamla Mason, and one granddaughter Tamea Handy. She leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted husband, Michael Handy; daughter, Tamla Mason; granddaughter, Tamea Handy; her mother, Betty M. Wright; and a devoted aunt (Mom), Helen. She has six sisters, Frances, Ella, Yvonne, Patricia, Cordella and Barbara Jean; one brother, Cornell; three sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law, four aunts, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
