

Gloria Sheron Jackson-Ishmeal

March 16, 1952 - May 14, 2012

On March 16, 1952, an Angel was loaned to us in the form of GLORIA SHERON JACKSON. She was the youngest daughter of the late Bishop James Henry and Pernetta Jackson. The Lord saw fit call her home on Monday, May 14, 2012.

Gloria was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. After high school, Gloria was employed by the Baltimore City Department of Social Services, Cherry Hill Division. Later she obtained a Geriatric Nursing Degree from the PTC Career Institute. She worked as a nurse's assistant caring for the elderly.

She bore two lovely children, Thomas LaRone Brown and Rhonda Cann. She later met and married Akim Ishmeal. Gloria was very comical, and used humor to make life seem more acceptable during hard times. She kept them close to her heart and always in prayer. Her two older siblings, Bishop Jebb Jackson and Dr. Loretta Jackson were a great inspiration to her Christian walk.

God chose and obtained Gloria S. Jackson - Ishmeal to be a Missionary in 1999, at the Pleading Holiness Church of Christ under the leadership of her pastor and brother, Bishop Jebb Jackson. She was truly a great woman of God and lived a life according to the Word of God. She never hesitated to let people know about Jesus Christ, crucified , buried, risen, and is coming again. Some of her favorite quotes are, “You gotta know Jesus for yourself,” “Nothing is too hard for God ,” and Jesus told me He would take of me Her favorite scripture was Psalm 46:10, “Be still and know that I am God” Gloria' s life demonstrated faith, works and the power of prayer. She would pray for anybody at any given time, and point the unsaved to Jesus.

Sister Ishmeal went on home to glory , but leaves a legacy in Christ Jesus to her children: Thomas L. Brown and Deacon Rhonda Cann; three brothers Bishop Jebb Jackson, Roy Jacob Jackson and Joseph Jerome Jackson;one sister-in-law, Dr. Loretta Jackson; one sister-in- law, Delores Jackson; two grandchildren, Tiffany Brown and Taquan Smith. Gloria had a deep love for all her nephews and nieces; she always did something special for them. She leaves a host aunts, uncles, cousins and many dear friends. Her best friend down through the years Janice Jones.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ A Life Well Spent

Reflecting

On

GLORIA JACKSON ISHMEAL

Caretaker for the late JEROLYN J. STEWART If I had to summarize Gloria in one word, the word I'd choose is LOVE. Gloria epitomized unselfish love in her daily walk. She was care giver for my aunt, Jerolyn J. Stewart who had Alzheimer Disease. That was no easy job; but her tender loving care evoked a loving response from my aunt.

Gloria showed love to those who were unloving to her. She showed love to the down-cast, down-trodden, poor, homeless, aged, neglected...

Gloria never published any books, held any prestigious positions, or accumulated wealth; however, hers was a life well spent. She, like our Lord Jesus, demonstrated her love in unselfish acts of kindness: she gave of herself and her substance (meager though it may have been).

I will always remember Gloria for the love that she gave to me, my mother and my aunt.
