

Gloria Jean Jackson

September 21, 1948 - April 20, 2009

Today we assemble to acknowledge and celebrate the new life unto which GLORIA JEAN JACKSON has entered, and eternal life in the presence of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. "...A Time to be Born"-Ecclesiastes 3:2 Gloria Jean Williams was born on September 21, 1948 in Berlin, Maryland. She was the third child of the late William and Lottie Williams. Gloria was a spiritual, family oriented, compassionate, and loving woman. "...A Time to be Trained"-Proverbs 22:6 "Glo", as she was affectionately called, was a product of the Baltimore City school system. She earned her Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education at Coppin State Teachers' College in the early 1970s. "...A Time to be Saved"-John 30:3 Gloria was baptized and saved at the early age of fourteen. She was a member of several churches as a young woman. Approximately eighteen years ago, she made her church home at First Mount Olive Freewill Baptist Church (Bishop Oscar E. Brown) where she and husband Phil remained members until her passing. "...A Time to Love"-Ecclesiastes 3:9 On June 27, 1997, Phillip H. Jackson and Gloria J. Williams entered into Holy Matrimony. She cherished and found much delight in her husband and their three wonderful and talented children (Michelle Jeter, George Raymond Mitchell, Jr. and Shayna Kali Jackson). "...A Time to Labor"-Genesis 3:19 Gloria began her career as a preschool education teacher. She held this position for approximately seven years. Thereafter, she worked as a fashion model (part-time), a marketing district manager, and recruiter. Gloria was later employed at the Baltimore City Department of Social Services where she held several positions over the past twenty years. She had a passion for helping people in need especially impoverished, abused, and neglected children. After many years of working with this population she retired from Social Services and returned to her “true calling”, that of a professional teacher. Gloria loved to teach and her co-workers, friends, and students held a special place in her heart. “... A Time to Laugh and a Time to Dance”- Ecclesiastes 3:4 Gloria loved spending time with her family and friends. She especially loved the holidays (all holidays) and family outings. Gloria was also very talented. She loved photography, sewing, cooking, crafts, and singing. Gloria has an incredible voice! During the Christmas holidays, Gloria would sing with Phil as he played the guitar. Everyone really enjoyed this, even though they were both very modest about their talents. However, Gloria’s true passion was shopping. That girl could shop from early in the morning until late at night, several times a week!!! “...A Time to be with the Lord”- Numbers 23:10 Gloria Jackson went home to be with Jesus and her parents, who preceded her in death. She leaves to mourn her devoted husband (Phillip Jackson), three beautiful children (Michelle Jeter, George Mitchell Jr. and Shayna Jackson); three loving siblings (Steve Williams, Ronald Williams and Joyce Williams-Ryals); four precious grandchildren (Candice Boyd, Shamar Nelson, Rayven and Sharay Mitchell); several loyal nieces and nephews (Leroy and Jackie Henderson, Brian and Barry Williams, Delford and Joann Jimmerson, Clifford Hinnant and Theresa Williams, Steve A. Williams, Joyce “LaVerne” Williams, Angela and Isaiah Williams); daughter-in-law, Shawntay Mitchell; sisters-in-law, Marquerite Wood, Angela Williams, Helen Williams and Marva Jackson; brothers-in-law, George Jackson and Bernard Jackson; and a host of other relatives and friends to include Astrina Calame, Joyce Jubilee, Ida Manning, Sylvia Rogers, Deyane Jones-Mumford, who remained devoted to her over several decades.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. There is much hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 9:36-41 tells us about a very loving, generous and talented woman that fell sick and died. That was not the end of this true story. She was raised to life and her loved ones were thrilled to welcome her back. This will happen for many mothers in Jehovah God's due time.(Acts 24:15) May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To my sister in Christ, my co-worker and my friend If I could catch a rainbow I would do it just for you and share with you its beauty on the days you were feeling uncomfortable. If I could build a mountain you could call your very own a place to find serenity a place to be alone. If I could take your troubles I would toss them in the sea but all these things I'm finding are impossible for me. I cannot build a mountain or catch a rainbow but I want to be what I know best your friend. I am very grateful for the box of friendship we opened and shared over the years. Lovingly Submitted Joyce Farrar-Credle To Mr. Phillip Jackson GOD will provide you hope in the midst of your sorrow comfort in the midst of pain family and friends to comfort you faith to uphold you But the loving memories you have of Gloria are cherished those memories never fade and they will help you through your difficult days. May GOD BLESS YOU Submitted Joyce Farrar-Credle###imported-begin###Joyce Farrar-Credle###imported-end###

“ Gloria, Was always an open and thoughtful person. Her love showed in her kind words, her bubbly laughter, her kind deeds. Her life was a life filled with love for her husband, love for her children, her family and even in some strangers time of need. Her life, her deeds taught everyone around her that life is precious. Never one to complain, always she showed compassion. Let us, the ones that knew and cherished her keep her sense of pride for us as a people and togetherness as a family alive. “ To Ray,Michelle, Mr Phil and the rest of the family. I pray that God will continue to hold you in His arms during these trying times. He will give you strength when you are weak and He will hold you in His arms. I know that Aunt Gloria is with Him and is praising His name, pain free and with joy in her spirit because she has seen her Lord face to face. Aunt Gloria has always treated me like a son and she will truly be missed. She was full of joy, kindness and peace in the midst of a lot of people's storms. She was a person whom you knew that you could trust. I am also truly saddened also by the fact that I will be out of town for her funeral. My heart and prayers are with you. “ grandma, I never thought the day would come when I would have to remind myself that I would never see you again. But on that same day God reminded that he needed u to come home to help Him with some work: To help Him watch over your oldest granddaughter and to help her to remember all of the lessons that u taught her and the wise words that you gave her. Grandma, I know that your time here with us is finished and that your work in Heaven is just beginning, but as you watch over me, I promise to make you proud and to never forget the many things that u have taught me. I LOVE U MORE THAN U COULD EVER KNOW and will miss u very very much! Never Goodbye but See You Later!! Candy Cane###imported-begin##Candice###imported-end##

“ To the family of Gloria, I send my deepest condolences for your loss. Death is truly devastating, because we miss our loved one so much, and long to see their dear face just one more time. God didnot mean for us to experience such pain and sorrow, and he has blessed things ahead for those who love him. At times when doubt creep up into your heart, remember that salvation is with Jehovah, and only he knows the ways out from death. Psalm 68:20. He has sent us his son, Jesus, who made the way for us to be forgiven of our sins and have an opportunity for everlasting life. Jesus said, "I am the way and the truth, and the life. "None comes to the father except through me. He paid that painful ransom price so that we could have life and have it in abundance. John 10:10. Jehovah has given him all authority to ressurect the dead, according to John 5:25-29, and one day they will hear Jesus's voice and come out of the memorial tombs. Death is truly not the end, and one day the dead will stand up again. May you keep God's promises close to your hearts, and let the promised ressurection give you a hope to cling to an an anchor for your souls.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the Family and friends, Please accept my condolences. May you draw comfort from the resurrection hope. Jesus demonstrated this with Lazarus at John 11:38-44. May these verses give you the strength and encouragement you need at this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Jackson's ! I would like to express my condolences to you all in your recent circle of life being broken. Lossing a dear love one hurts and pain our hearts. Our heavenly father know how you all are fairing and is there with all the needed comfort in all the tribulations in these last days,2 Tim.3:1-5. In the near future the bible holds out a promise of better things to come, Ps.145:15. I am so looking forward to that and I know you all are too. May the gift of memories support and sustain you all on the journey of life ahead.I hope these thoughts will be uplifting to read.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##
