

Gloria Latta Smith

September 19, 1925 - May 13, 2004

Gloria Latta Smith was born on September 19, 1925 to Thomas Suffolk Ball and Myrtle (nee Robinson) Ball in Baltimore, Maryland. After major surgery and a long gallant fight, she was called home on Thursday, May 13, 2004. She received her primary and secondary education in Baltimore's public schools. Gloria pursued teacher education training at Coppin State College and Morgan State College. She earned a cosmetology certificate and was licensed by the State of Maryland during her retirement. During her young adult life, Gloria adopted the 23rd Psalm as her favorite Bible passage and it guided her through life challenges. The Lord was her shepherd, and with His help, she shepherded a family of six children. Gloria enjoyed green pastures and her soul was restored when after Glenn L. Martin moved to Colorado, Westinghouse Electric employed her. She was a pioneer as an electronics technician for aircraft radar instrumental in the aerospace industry. Gloria was an excellent and tireless seamstress who often greeted family and friends while seated at her sewing machine. She loved shopping, flea markets and outlet malls. Age seemed not to dim her love for dancing. Gloria developed a passion for travelling with her friends. Frequent trips and cruises to the Caribbean blessed her to meet and marry Saunders J. Smith of Freeport, Grand Bahamas in June, 1986. They enjoyed traveling, dancing and happy life. She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving and devoted husband, Saunders; her sisters, Ella Rosemond Williams and June Mitchell; her brother, Thomas Lloyd Ball; her children, Camille, Donald, Robert and Paul and stepson, Mark; grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and numerous other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from "... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations. He is also the same God who promises that soon there will be a resurrection of those who went asleep in death. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 and John 5:28,29. May you find solace from these scriptures.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
