

Gloria Leona Jackson

November 19, 1934 - July 24, 2002

Suddenly on July 24, 2002, around 8:00a.m, God saw fit to call our beloved Gloria Jackson. Gloria was born November 19, 1934 in Baltimore Maryland to the late James and Isabelle Jackson. She attended Baltimore City Public Schools. Gloria was a valued employee at Broadway Services for twenty years until she became ill. "Cousin," as she was affectionately known was a very warm, fun loving and caring person to her family and friends and also everyone who knew her. She always had a pleasant smile upon her face and a kind word to say. Everyone who knew and loved her will miss her very much. We give praise and thanks, for we know that she is with her Father where there is no pain and no more grief. She may now have eternal peace. She will now be reunited with her sister, the late Vernell Gaskins and her brother, the late Delbert Jackson. Gloria leaves to mourn: two brothers, Alfonso Jackson and Waymond Washington; two nieces, Valarie Felder and Shelwyn Gaskins; two nephews, Durant Gaskins and Camillus Gaskins; nine great-nieces, Sherron, Shermaine, Shalonda, Angela, Tiara, Ivy, Camilla, Taila (Jaz) and Tiala (Breeze); three great-nephews, Durrell, Wayne and Marquis; one great-great niece, Jayda; two great-great nephews, Kenneth (KJ) and Trey; and a brother-in-law, Joseph Gaskins. Among these people would include but not limited to Renea Gaskins, Tijuana Clayton, Marvin Brooks; two devoted friends, Sissy and Neicy; and a host of other family and friends
