

Gloria M. Harris

February 1, 1937 - October 26, 2007

“Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.” — John 14:27

GLORIA MAE HARRIS was born on February 1, 1937 in Fairfield, North Carolina to the late James and Addle Gibbs. In the early hours of morning, October 26, 2007, God reached down from His heavenly home and whispered softly to Gloria, “Daughter come home.” Gloria received her education from the Fairfield, North Carolina school system. She met and married her late husband and childhood sweetheart Garland Harris. They moved to Brooklyn, New York where she began her family. She then continued the rest of her journey in Baltimore Maryland, working for the state as a caretaker for many years, where she brought joy to all she came in contact with. Gloria was self-sacrificing and insisted on always putting everyone else before herself. She remained until her departure in the mode of giving and never asking in every aspect of her life. Apart from her own children, her grandchildren remained her greatest source of joy and pride. She was a kind-hearted, generous, devoted and loving mother, grandmother and friend to everyone. She opened her home to anyone who needed a place to live, all with a smile on her face and love in her heart. She was an immaculate homemaker. She never complained about life or her health, even when she was not feeling well. She knew that this home was just a rest stop along the way. She enjoyed her independence. In Gloria’s willingness to make others happy she would forever be remembered for her unselfish contributions, her loving and caring ways, but most of all for her sweet and motherly demeanor. She will be truly missed by everyone she touched. Gloria is survived by: five children, Garland, Alonzo Sr., Fredia, Jerry, and Gregory Harris; seven grandchildren, Alonzo Jr., Leichelle, Nashea, Shaneka, Monica, Dominick, Demitrius and Jermaier; three great-granddaughters, Blessing, Erielle, Samony'e; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ If we could bring you back again, For one more hour or day, We'd express all our unspoken love; We'd have countless things to say. If we could bring you back again, We'd say we treasured you, And that your presence in our lives Meant more than we ever knew. If we could bring you back again, To tell you what we should, You'd know how much we miss you now, And if we could, we would.##imported-begin##Leichelle##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy. None of us wants to lose our loved ones in death, and it's something so hard to come to terms with. This was never God's purpose for us, because he desires all people to live in peaceful and secure conditions without death hanging over our heads. One day his purpose will come to fulfillment, because he will bring about a new world devoid of pain and sorrow. 2nd Peter 3:13 One day all those who have died will live again, because the bible promises that there will be a resurrection. Acts 24:15. This is why Jesus gave his precious life so that we could have life and have it in abundance. John 10,10. He says: "I am the resurrection and the life. Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies will come to life. John 11:25. Please be comforted by Jehovah's promises, and may he give you the strength to endure. 2nd Cor 1:3,4##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ May I send my fellow feeling to you all in the lost of you dear love one Ms. Gloria. Living for almost 70 is a great is in haromy with Ps.90:10 which say, some person will live to be 70 years and others because of speical mightiness 80 years. Imagine the joy to be had when our loved ones are resurrected. I am looking forward to that time coming in the near future. May all the happy times spent with Ms. Gloira help to support you all in the days and months and years to come.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
