

Gloria Jean Scott

August 5, 1949 - August 7, 2019

GLORIA JEAN SCOTT, daughter of the late Randolph and Gertrude Aldridge, was born on August 5, 1949 in Baltimore, MD. After a lengthy, but audacious battle with illness, she received her wings on August 7, 2019. Gloria was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and was gainfully employed throughout her life, She was a long time member of New Christian Memorial Church. In the early 70's, she began dating the love of her life, Ronald Scott and the two were married on March 29, 1975.

Gloria and Ronald opened their establishment, Caton Castle, an anchor in the community; known as a staple soul food venue and most of all, highly rated jazz lounge featuring some of the best local and national musicians. As the proprietor, Gloria managed the package goods, bar and lounge for many years before her health prevented her from doing so. But this didn't stop her from enjoying and loving life! Gloria cherished her family and was extremely dedicated to ensuring everyone in it stayed close and took care of one another. Some of her favorite past time activities were spending time out with loved ones, baking, playing cards, watching TV ministries and listening to oldies; especially Sam Cooke who was her favorite artist. It brought great joy to her heart to spend time with Zuri, her great niece.

Not only did Gloria show love to the children in her family, but she even had a soft spot for her nieces and nephews' friends, mentoring them and making sure they didn't go with out. She was known for contributing annually to the St. Joseph Community Association's school supply drive and community event. Gloria also regularly donated to the Benkert Street "Church Tree", summer program for neighborhood youth.

Gloria was loved by numerous people and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She lived life to the fullest with little regret; often sharing the fond memories of growing up with her siblings and friends in South Baltimore, having fun with her sisters, and of course, her wonderful journey with her soulmate, Ronald. Even in her last days, she was concerned about those she loved and wanted to make certain her home-going was truly a celebration of life. She was blessed!

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Ronald; one stepson, Ronald, Jr.; granddaughter, Shanice; great granddaughter, Leah; one aunt, Lilly Jean (Georgia), a dear cousin, Michelle (Georgia); sisters-in-law: Mary, Dorothy, Joyce and Roberta; nieces: Shana, Neikeda, Rashida, Kahla, Zuri, Eshyna, Paulette, Cheryl, Tyra and Rochelle; nephews: Kevin, Eric, Randolph III, Shawn, Robert, Toby, Antwan, Brandon, Mike, Paul, Ronald, Keith, Gerard, Derrick, Timothy and Kenneth, along with a host of other close relatives and friends.
