

Gloria T. Little

June 28, 1986 - April 28, 2005

Gloria “Tierra” Little daughter of Sabrina Little and Patrick Westmoreland was born on June 28, 1986 in Baltimore, Maryland. On April 28, 2005, God’s angels came down to relieve her of her long battle with cancer. Although her body was ill, Tierra’s heart was full of joy and determination. You could always find her smiling and sharing her lovable spirit with all that knew her. Tierra loved to travel, she also loved to dress, as well as put on her bling-bling; and she had lots of it. Most importantly Tierra would often reflect and thank God for constantly giving her the strength she needed on this journey. Her favorite foods were: Chicken Oodles and Noodles, Onion Pickles, and Snow Crab Leg. Her favorite pass time was going to the mall with her mother, reading about or singing along with her favorite artist, Aaliyah. She also enjoyed watching movies and music videos and hanging out with her aunt Chrisdin (Pig). Tierra was educated in both Baltimore City and Baltimore County public schools. She most recently attended Overlea High school where she was a senior who was loved and adored by many of her classmates and teachers. Tierra leaves to cherish memories: her parents, Sabrina Little and Patrick Westmoreland; one sister, Iesha; four brothers, Travis, Patrick, Byron and Antoine, a devoted father figure, Anthony Powell, who encouraged her never to give up on achieving what she wanted in life; four god-brothers, Anthony, Trea, Collin and Tyler; grandparents, Virginia Little, Shelia Coleman and Lewis Dawkins; two uncles, John McCollough and Devrron Coleman; five aunts, Kimberly Coleman, Chrisdin Coleman, Veronica

Little, Carlean Rogers, Sharnice Williams and beloved great grandmother, Agather Westmoreland who preceded her in her journey, also, a host of relatives and friends.

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of you child, but please know that our Loving God was not the reason of her passing. The reason our love ones die is because of our first parents Adam and Eve. They passed on sin and death to us all. Romans 5:12. There will come a time when death will be no more Revelations 21:3-4. John 5:28-29 tells us there is going to be a resurrection of those who have passed. God is love 1John 4:16.##imported-begin##T Curtis##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I know you all don't know me. I am sitting here reading about your baby girl and thinking of my nineteen year old son and saying she was so young and pretty, but sounds like her adversities did not get the best of her. May God Bless you and Heaven smile upon you.##imported-begin##Maria##imported-end##

“ I did not know your relative; however, I'm deeply saddened to hear about your loss. Death hurts us all even if our love one was sick or not. Please accept my condolences and may you find comfort in the scriptures in your time of grief. May you find comfort in knowing that God has given us a loving promise at John 5:28,29 "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life."###imported-begin##Sorry2Hear##imported-end##

“ Dear Friends & Family, please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your beautiful daughter, sister, granddaughter and friend. No doubt this pain is great and as a parent of a 20 year old daughter, I can only imagine this sadness. It truly makes me count my blessings. I just want to share a couple of scriptures from the bible in hopes to help comfort you even if for only a little while. Our loving Heavenly Father knows what you're going through and as the "God of comfort" wants you to be comforted through His word. His word tells us at Isaiah 26:19, "Your dead ones will live again. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!... This wonderful promise assures us that those whom we have buried in the ground (or dust) will live again. God's word tells us at John 5:28,29, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.... At Isaiah 25:8 it tells us, "He will actually swallow up death forever... Our loved ones won't have to die again and I'm sure we all long for that to take place. So continue to rely on God's word, not man's. God cannot lie and for that reason we don't have to worry about the what-ifs. Please compare these scriptures with your copy of the bible to see these wonderful truths firsthand and have hope. My prayers are with you.###imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##
