

Gloria Lynn Watson

September 12, 1962 - June 3, 2015

Gloria L. Watson, daughter of Melvina Watson and the late Moses Watson, Jr., was born on September 12, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed her life on June , 2015 after a sudden death.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Walbrook Senior High School. She later received her Nursing Aide Certificate and worked in several nursing care facilities. She also worked in the Chicken factory in Baltimore for numerous years. Later in her life, she worked at Lowest Price Gas Station and Uncle Ralphs Cookies, both located in Frederick, MD, until she was unable to work.

Gloria made friends wherever she went and was always willing to give a helping hand. She loved to travel, cookout and have family dinners. She enjoyed being with her family and friends and sharing laughter with them. She loved her three grandsons, and she was able to help raise two of them, Dasean and Jayden. She didn't ever miss a holiday or birthday for her three little guys. She enjoyed the simple things in life such as family time, vacations, coffee and Newports. Gloria was a woman of many smiles and was proud of her children and grandchildren. She loved God and attending church services whenever she was able to make it.

Her father, Moses Watson; sisters, Betty and Cindy Watson; niece, Victoria

Jones, all preceded Gloria in death.

She leaves to mourn: her mother, Melvina Watson; two sons, Jamaal Butts (Wanda) of Middletown, MD and Marvin Johnson (Shiquita) of Baltimore, MD; daughter, Martia Johnson (David) of Baltimore, MD; three grandsons, Dasean Butts, Jayden Butts and David Battle jr., four sisters, Barbara Moody (William), Carolyn Watson, Janice Watson and Cheryl Watson; one brother, Melvin Watson (Donna); two aunts, one uncle, seven nieces, one nephew, numerous "great" nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
